The VIDETTE
OF MID-1940

SCHOOL, LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

DEDICATION

TO HAROLD B. GEHMAN

A TRUE AND SINCERE FRIEND,
A COMPETENT AND GUIDING
TEACHER, WE, THE CLASS OF MID-1940, DEDICATE THIS, OUR ANNUAL, AS A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION AND RESPECT.

F O R E W O R D

As our last effort to show our worth and devotion to J. P. McCaskey High School, we offer this book as a shining memory of our high school days. We, the class of January, 1940, are an unusual one in that ours is the last class to be graduated in the mid-year. Herein we have stated our ambitions, our hopes, our desires. If at some time the traveling on life's highway becomes wearisome and troubled, this book of youthful treasures may be a guiding light toward our ultimate goal.

SECRETARIAL STAFF

ELIZABETH HERSHBERGER

A. BLANCHE LANDIS

EMMA B. SAUDER

RUTH SLAUGH

S E N I O R S

ARTHUR PARKS ABBOTT

Tall, talkative, good-natured. When a new joke arrives, "Art" is the first to spring it. A well-dressed flash with the feminine sex.

DOROTHY ANDERSON

Takes life easy. Always happy and full of song. May be a nurse in the future.

THOMAS E. AULT

Class's only three-letter man. Tommy excels in basketball, football, and track. His strong voice is a mainstay in the glee club. Dances in his spare time.

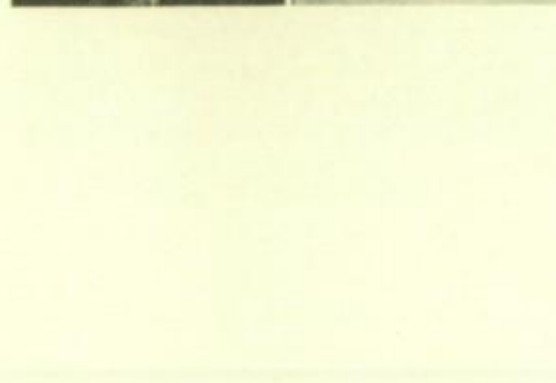

VICTOR JOHN AULT

Blond heartbreaker. A really smooth dancer. Most frequently seen on Saturday nights at the "Y" dances. Quiet in classes, "Vic" is liked by all.

SARAH E. BAIR

Sally is a studious girl. Would like to be a secretary or live on a farm. Is that right?

GLADYS BARTO

Gladys Bobs with joy when going to a dance. Her ambition is to get to Texas.

NANCY BEVIS

Nancy's spontaneity and naturalness have won her many friends among her classmates.

KENNETH DAVID BITZER

The only difference between Frank Buck and "Ken" is that "Ken" brings 'em back dead. Seldom seen without his winning smile. Always has a cheery word for everyone.

ROBERT PAUL BITZER

"Bashful Bob" is seldom seen with women. Pals around a lot with Meekins. Usually enjoys lunch hour in the Ford. A hard-playing member of Gehman's championship team.

IRENE BRAAS

Always active in gym class. Would like to be a typist for some business firm.

EMMA BRENNEMAN

A girl with not much to say. Her one desire is to be a governess.

MARY JANE BROWN

Frequently, or almost always, seen with Charles. Busy being educated for job as future housewife.

HELEN BUNTING

Quiet and simple on the surface, but her beaming dimples display the fun in her heart.

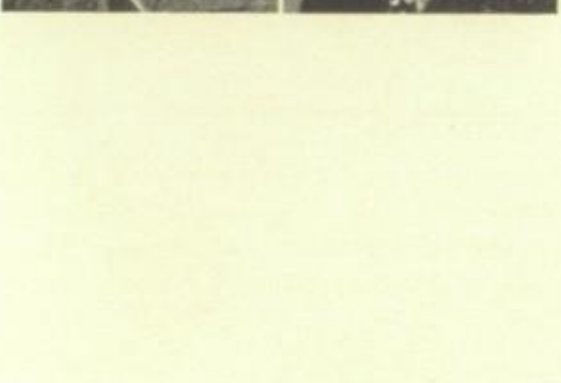

ANNA BURGER

Ann is a pretty blonde with blue eyes. Very quiet and usually serious, but loads of fun.

BETTY BYARS

Stodious and hardworking. Will go far. Hopes to be a physician or a housewife.

LEROY CAMPBELL

Tall and blond . . . shy, but likable. Usually walks in the hall alone. Rather slow in getting to classes, but leaves for lunch in nothing flat. Always smiling.

RICHARD CASE

Short, slender, neatly-dressed ladies' man. Nick-name "Shadow."

GUST M. CHOKINOS

A future economist and algebra teacher? Never too busy to stop for a chat, "Gush" brightens many a day. His dark hair will get some girl, for sure.

DONALD CLARK

A quiet lad, but a very sincere friend. Friendly and likable, he hides great thoughts behind a pleasant face. A staunch supporter of the class of M-40.

AARON COHEN

Tall, lanky, good-natured, "Hairless" did a good job of playing guard on the football team. Nick-name came from having so much hair. Quiet at times, but extremely well-liked.

DOROTHY COWAN

Small and merry. Very apt in shorthand. Success should be hers.

ROBERT FRANK DACHS

Short, plump, and dapper. Jokes by the millions are stored in Bob's brain. His good personality wins many a feminine.

RICHARD CHARLES DICELEY

Well-liked Dick is blond and usually quiet. Very sincere and dependable. Does physics readily for both himself and Rose. A vicious basketball player, in gym.

ELIZABETH DOUGHERTY

A good skater when not wiping the floor. Bettie will make an excellent housewife.

JEAN DUING

Pleasant and dependable. Interested in music. Some day hopes to be a teacher or enter some field of music work.

ROBERT DUKE

Short, dark jokester. One of Mr. Becker's and Mr. Weise's best friends. Noted for slumping in his seat. Always good for at least one laugh a class.

LONA EBERLE

Popular red-haired lady. Has many qualities for the makings of a private secretary.

THERESA EBERLY

Tess wants to study at the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music—or is it California? Her name may appear in lights some day.

GORDON EBY

An accomplished organist. Contributes a good voice to the glee club. Enjoys talking about things in general. Often seen adorning the church page in the Sunday paper.

PAUL TREXLER EBY

If it were not for Paul, many homework papers would never be turned in. Chief initiator for the Hi-Y. Intelligent. Future druggist.

JANE ESHLEMAN

Petite she will be all her life,
She will make someone an excellent wife.

GLADYS FARREL

A friend to all. Her face surely beams when you mention certain football games.

LUTHER FINEFROCK

Hard-playing footballer of the Gehman Goons.
Good commercial student and winner of many pennies. Great golfer and an all-round good friend.

ESTHER FLAWD

A girl with many friends. Her future—she's still rather undecided about that.

BETTY FORREST

Sincere. Straightforward. Serious. Betty serves willingly. A future school marm.

ROBERT FRAUNFELTER

Artist supreme and super Sea Scout. Reads a great deal, but not school books. Well-liked member of Hi-Y. Art editor of the "Anonymous."

ROBERT FREY

Good example of a tall, dark, and handsome student. Makes many a feminine heart beat faster in his flashy convertible. Class prexy.
Wolfer and ace photographer.

RUTH FREY

A future beautician. Quiet and small. Talks only when called on—especially in sales class.

ROBERT FRIMD

Smooth dancer, flashy dresser, and nice line combine to make Bob a real Don Juan. Blows a mean horn in the band.

JEANNETTE GAINOR

Works hard. Seriousness plus a clowning nature. For further details about the future, see Jeannette.

DOROTHY GOCHENAUR

Rather quiet—sometimes. She's becoming a dress designer very, very fast.

MARION GOODWIN

Small. Dainty. Tries hard to succeed. Would like a commercial position.

MARY GRAHAM

Julie to Bill, but Mary to us. In the future she will be found in Pittsburgh.

HOWARD R. GRUMBRECHT

Hard-playing tackle on the football team. Seen most around school with Andy and Jerry, but takes to opposite sex readily. Good-looking and congenial.

B. HARRISON HACKENBERGER

Never serious. Curly-haired class clown. Smooth dresser. President of Delecto Men's Club. Always has a new joke to brighten the day.

SAMUEL HARNER

Jovial prankster of all classes. Good swimmer and excellent golf player. Rarely gets angry. Provides ready wit for all.

JANE HARTMAN

Pleasing personality. Speedy in writing shorthand. A booster of McCreary tires. A true friend.

ANNA MARY HAUN

An ardent worker. Hopes to enter business college and become a secretary.

ARTHUR HEDGE

Smooth dresser and dancer. A little radical at times, but nothing serious. His Ford and he are inseparable. Popular escort of many coeds.

MOSSIE BELLE HEIKES

Here's a grand girl whose personality makes her everybody's friend. She is an ardent appreciator of the finer things in life.

MARY LOUISE HEILMAN

Quiet, but determined. Loucation may enter college or be a missionary.

FRANCES HELM

We may be justly proud of Nicky, for her witty remarks and her rare sense of humor add zest and life to any gathering.

PENRHYN HEMMING

Good student with pleasing personality. Woman-hater from all appearances. Knows a lot about sports. One of Gehman's devoted Goons.

JANE HENDRY

Small. Usually happy. Frequently seen with a certain boy named Paul.

JOHN HERR

Small, blond, and likable. Great physicist? Amiable and talkative.

JANE HERSHEY

Conscientious. Tall. Dark. Lots of fun and a friend to all.

JESSIE HERSHEY

Jess always gets flustered and blushes when Geleton, Pa., is mentioned. We wonder why??????

BETTY HOOVER

Betty is Bud's best gal. Hopes to be a stenographer. Interested in music and Maytown.

JANE HUBBELL

Jolly and quite a sport. Our Jane is a little chatterbox, but we like her for it.

JAMES HUBER

Class prodigy. Runs competition with Joe College. Jack's only worry is making it home without running out of gas. Memorizing Shakespeare is second nature to Jack.

BERNICE HURSHMAN

Our champion chewing gum chewer. One of football's eager fans. P. S. Jack is a football hero.

PAUL HURTER

Short, blond commercial student. Scored many a winning touchdown for the Goons. Likes to argue, but is well-liked.

ADELINE JARRETT

Shorthand transcriber extraordinary. Adeline should reap success in the business world. Will probably grow old with "Mugs."

JANE KAUTZ

Tall. Quiet. Reserved. Will make someone a good stenographer.

MARIAN KELLENBERGER

Longs to be a beautician. Small in size, but has a mind of her own. Prefers Langley to a certain football player.

IVA JANE KEMRER

The "blue Lancaster blonde" with the patented giggle. Wants to study law at Gettysburg.

DOROTHY KOERKLE

Small, dainty, and classy. A ready smile for all. Will probably be a designer some day.

HERBERT KRAYBILL

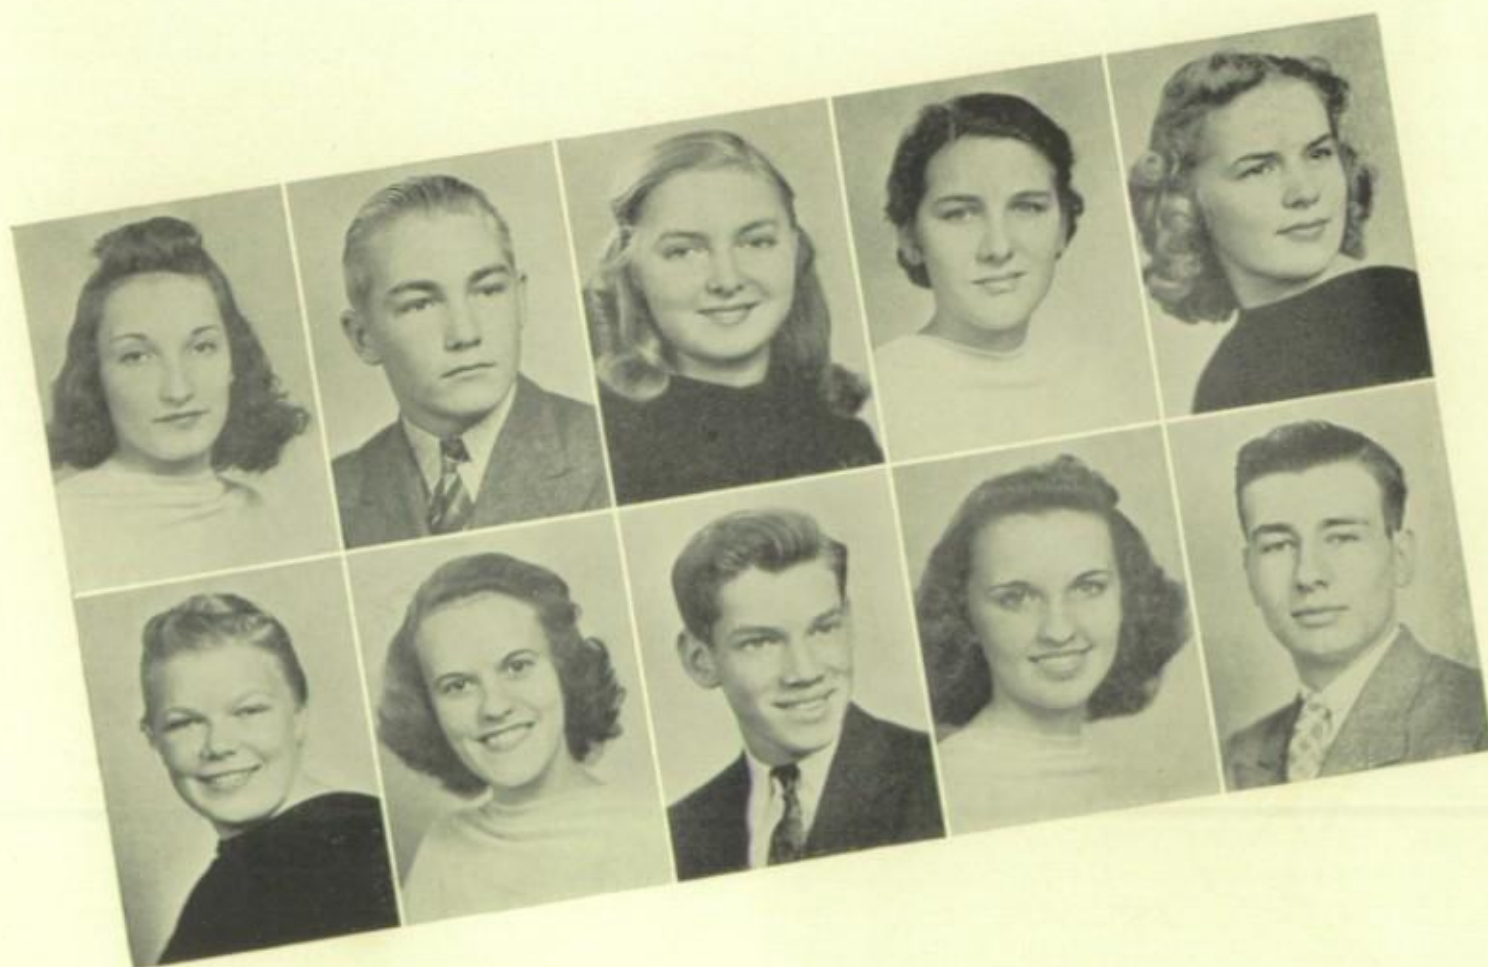

Known as the Red Terror of the Tennis Courts. Future engineer. His hair is the envy of everybody. Wolfer and member of Herb and Lou syndicate.

DOROTHY KREIDER

Tall. Sophisticated. Headed for the field of designing as an arduous worker.

HOMER KRICK

Tall, quiet, different. Shy with girls. Finds solace in being an excellent hunter and fisher. A deep thinker and a good commercial student.

HELEN LA MONICA

Hopes to reach her destination in Harrisburg.
Seen most recently with a certain Starr.

SUSAN LANDIS

A small and quiet little thing.
A studious girl who likes to sing.

NANCY JANE LEAMAN

Will travel west to enter the University of California. A nice place to study medicine, we'd say.

BETTY LE FEVER

If you ever need a friend, here is one on whom to depend. Earnest. Sincere.

ROBERT LEFEVER

Small and well-built. Peppy quarterback on the football team. Handsome countenance is always smiling. Girls are his life. Good math student.

MIRIAM LONG

Tall and pleasant. Her chief interests are "Jupie" and his Oldsmobile.

DOROTHY LONGSDORF

Usually rather quiet, but not in P. O. D. class. Aims to be a photographer in the future.

BETTY MANUEL

A perky little miss whose chief interest is Tommy. Aims to be a telephone operator.

JAMES MARTIN

Serious-minded student. Excellent tenor voice. Likable and interesting. Receives good marks with little effort. Hi-Y'er who aspires to the medical profession.

VIOLET MATTIS

Quiet. Brainy. Popular. Always has her homework finished. Favorite pastime — looking for a certain Dan.

GEORGE MAY

Dark and handsome. A pleasing personality makes him a sincere friend of all. Excellent president of the Student Council. A girl's dream boy. Wolfer.

MIRIAM MAY

Mim would like to be a personnel director, but Ed's a rather persuasive fellow.

FRANK MAYSILLES

Reads a lot in school—mostly love stories. Handsome golfer. Quiet in classes, but never serious. Looks forward to seeing the women in the evening.

HELENJANE McKELLY

Wants to be a switchboard operator. She is rather handy with a certain Broome.

FLORENCE McMANUS

To rate with Flossie a boy must be a college athlete—a football hero perhaps?

CAROLINE McNEAL

Conscientious worker. Lots of fun. Redheads are her specialty. Who is he, Caroline?

SAMUEL MEHAFFEY

Congenial, good-natured, Sam is Irish from head to foot. And proud of it. Always ready with a new joke. Sam is everybody's friend and Casanova to the girls.

NINA MAY MEISENHOLDER

To Nina, the best treasurer the Beta Chi Phi's ever had. Is good in math, and hopes to teach it some day.

EVA MILLER

Our little jitterbug. Eva would like to be a private secretary some day.

RUTH MILLER

A good sport. Interests —? A future saleswoman.

RUTH ELIZABETH MILLER

Jolly and always ready for action. Talk is her specialty. A friend to all.

MAXWELL MORRISON

Handsome brunette with a winning smile. Basketball flash. Indefinite as to plans for the future. Gives all of the girls a break.

SARA JANE MOYER

Snappy young miss by the name of Sal. Likes Bell Boys, although she's a fraternity gal.

WALTER MULL

Prize commercial student. Ardent joke teller. Always looks neat. Serious at times. Only sane driver in school.

INEZ NEWCOMER

Artistic. Trim. Favorite song—"Music, Pinky, Please." Quite a help in female section of the glee club.

FLORENCE NOLL

Flossie is a really grand girl who is genuine fun, and also has a serious side which commands attention.

JEANNE OTSTOT

Always jolly. A great sport fan and enthusiastic participator in all sport events. Frequently seen at the "Y."

MARCELEAN PALMER

She can send an arrow whizzing into the bull's eye. Better guard your hearts, boys.

ROBERT PLANTHOLT

Superb artist. Draws for Vidette. Pleasant smile always accompanies Bob's likable personality. Bound to go far in the future. Well-dressed and good-looking.

JANE POTTS

Very quiet and courteous. Hopes to be "somebody's stenog" in the future. With her ability she should go far.

PRISCILLA POWERS

This southern belle is quite a lass. Ambition—the least of her worries.

CHARLES REYNOLDS

Seen a lot in a lot of different places, but never without Mary Jane. Snappy dresser. Basketball ace.

JOAN PYFER

For the historian of our class, what remains: She has a Druid, beauty, and brains.

EVELYN RHOADS

Goodlooking. Full of pep. A sport of the highest degree. May be a future housewife.

ROBERT RANDALL

Quiet and serious thinker. Girls and dancing are his specialties. Gives Finerock competition in homeroom for pennies. A regular fellow.

WILLIAM RINEER

Likable Will is an excellent student—especially in shorthand. Dark good looks accompany his pleasing personality. Sure to succeed.

KENNETH REBMAN

A well-built, wiry-haired wrestler. When not working for his father, Ken sees a lot of Betty Jane. An all-around athlete. Favorite expression: "Great day in the morning."

MADELINE ROGERS

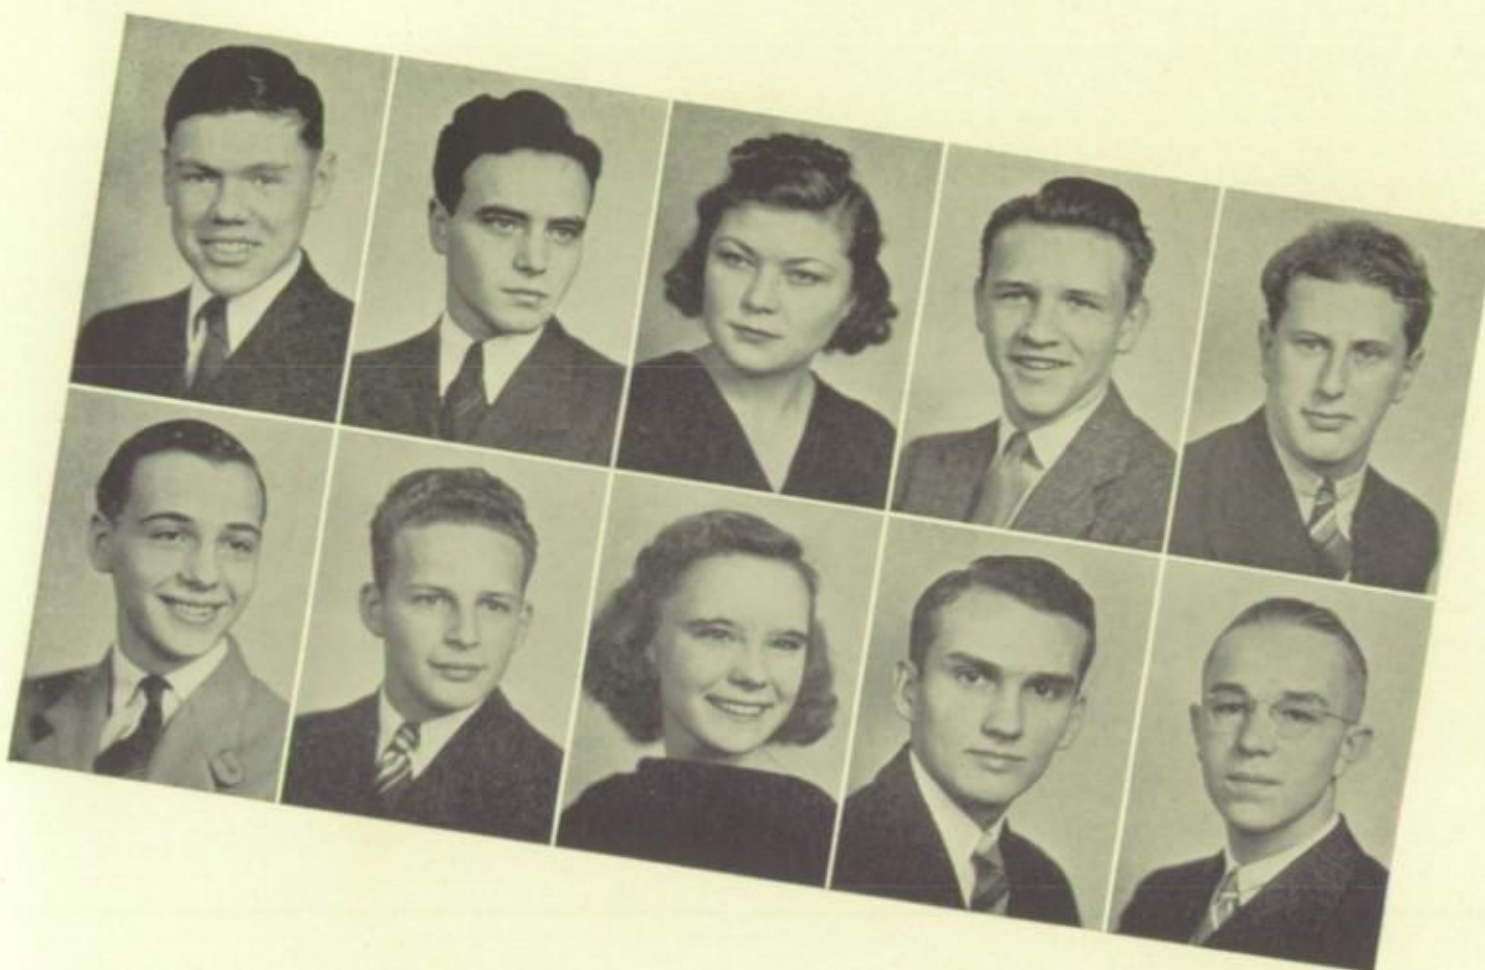

Quiet and reserved. Interested in sports and full of fun. Has personality in her big brown eyes.

WALTER G. REICH

Handsome football hero. Able class treasurer. Radiant personality. Dependability is his middle name. Loyal friend.

HERBERT ROMANOFF

Being able to drive cars and to attract women exceptionally well are this curly-haired heart-breaker's accomplishments. Goes to Reading a lot.

HAROLD ROSE

Ardent outdoorsman. One of the city's best hunters. Quietness, at times, only hides his intelligence and sincerity. A real friend. Fast becoming a ladies' man.

ELI ROSENTHAL

Spontaneous. Invigorating personality. A handsome boy who is sincere as a friend. Advocate of socialism. Expects to own an American Monte Carlo. Can really get serious.

SARA RUTH

The girl whose natural scholastic ability has awed her classmates and delighted her teachers.

GERALD SCHELLING

One of the Goon's dream team. Cooperates with Rineer to be a smart commercial student. Life of all class parties. Really a girl thriller.

CHARLES SCHIEFER

Curly-haired blond. A lad who buys beautiful Valentines and large boxes of candy for a certain miss. Talks a lot about sports and carries the news in his spare time.

CHARLES SCHMID

Hasn't an enemy in the school. Still talks about educational trip to New York. Personality and looks attract many of the other sex. The Office will miss such a willing helper.

ALFRED SCHMITT

"Tarzan" is a real he-man. Built like a Greek god. Gives his all in every game he plays. Popular jitterbug among the girls. Popular Goon among the boys.

DORIS SCHULER

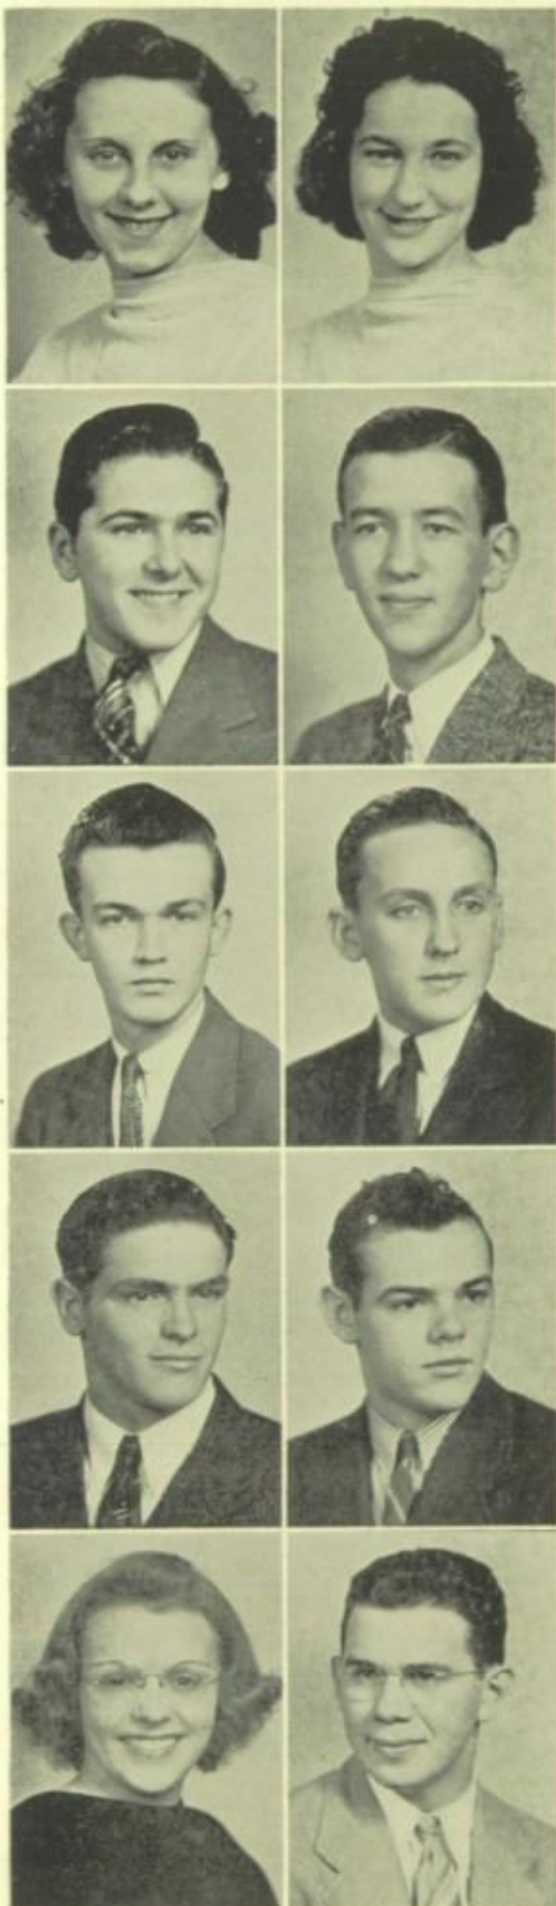

Sweet and quiet. A friend to all who know her. Charles thinks she rates A-1.

JACK SENSENIG

Tall, dark, good-looking student. Known in physics class as "Static." A harder worker cannot be found. Excellent Hi-Y president. Popular member of band and orchestra. His service to the school has no end.

HARRY SHAUB

Honest, sincere, a really good student. Athletic and extremely popular with the weaker sex. Blond hair gets 'em. One of Mr. Rentz's prodigies. A strong Gehman Goon.

DOROTHY SHAY

Dottie has a pleasing personality. Her future is undecided—or is it?

GLADYS SHEAFFER

A drum major hard to beat. Dark. Twinkling eyes. Merry and always friendly.

CHARLES SHECKART

A rather small sheik. Kitty is his one and only. Dances a lot when not working at the diner. Can usually be heard saying, "That's my business."

QUENTIN SHENK

Dark and lanky. His way with the women would startle even Casanova. Well-liked student who says school is fun.

CHARLES SHINDLER

Wavy-haired heartbreaker. Never fails to escort a girl home from school. Regular Hi-Y'er. Collaborates with Swab and Reich in chemistry. One couldn't find a better friend.

KENELM SHIRK

Radical and slightly talkative at times, but he is really a true friend. Happy only when a meeting maintains strict parliamentary procedure. Ardent DeMolay worker and wonderful salesman.

GERALD SHULTZ

Good-looking class athlete. Varsity track and football star. Jerry's personality has made and will continue to make many friends. All around swell fellow.

ROBERT SHULTZ

A dark-haired Romeo who aims for matrimony. Varsity footballer for three years. Seldom serious, Bob's pleasant grin shines on everybody.

MATILDA SIBSON

Joyful. Gay. A smile for every one. Quite a flash in stenography class.

ALBERT SIEGEL

Serious-minded, dark-haired student. Drives the longest car in school. An extremely congenial fellow, with a fine personality. Recently acquired New York accent.

ANN SIEGLER

Catches the eye of every man. To all, girls, too.
Ann is a constant friend.

ROBERT SIMPSON

Short, but good-looking lady-killer. A confirmed jitterbug. "Shag" is the best around. A loyal Goon who is usually happy.

ALICE SMITH

Alice is our class artist. Her favorite is some archer—Robin Hood.

DOROTHY SNAVELY

Attractive brunette. Friendly. Her sole interest is * at the present.

MARY JANE SNEAD

A pretty lass. Small. Usually seen with a certain Stevens Trade flash.

HENRY SNYDER

A jolly Don Juan. Pleasant temperament. Spends most of spare time at the Del. Usually late for classes. Doesn't let girls annoy him—annoy them instead.

NORMA SNYDER

A hearty laugh. A ready smile. A friend worth having is Norma.

BETTY SOUDERS

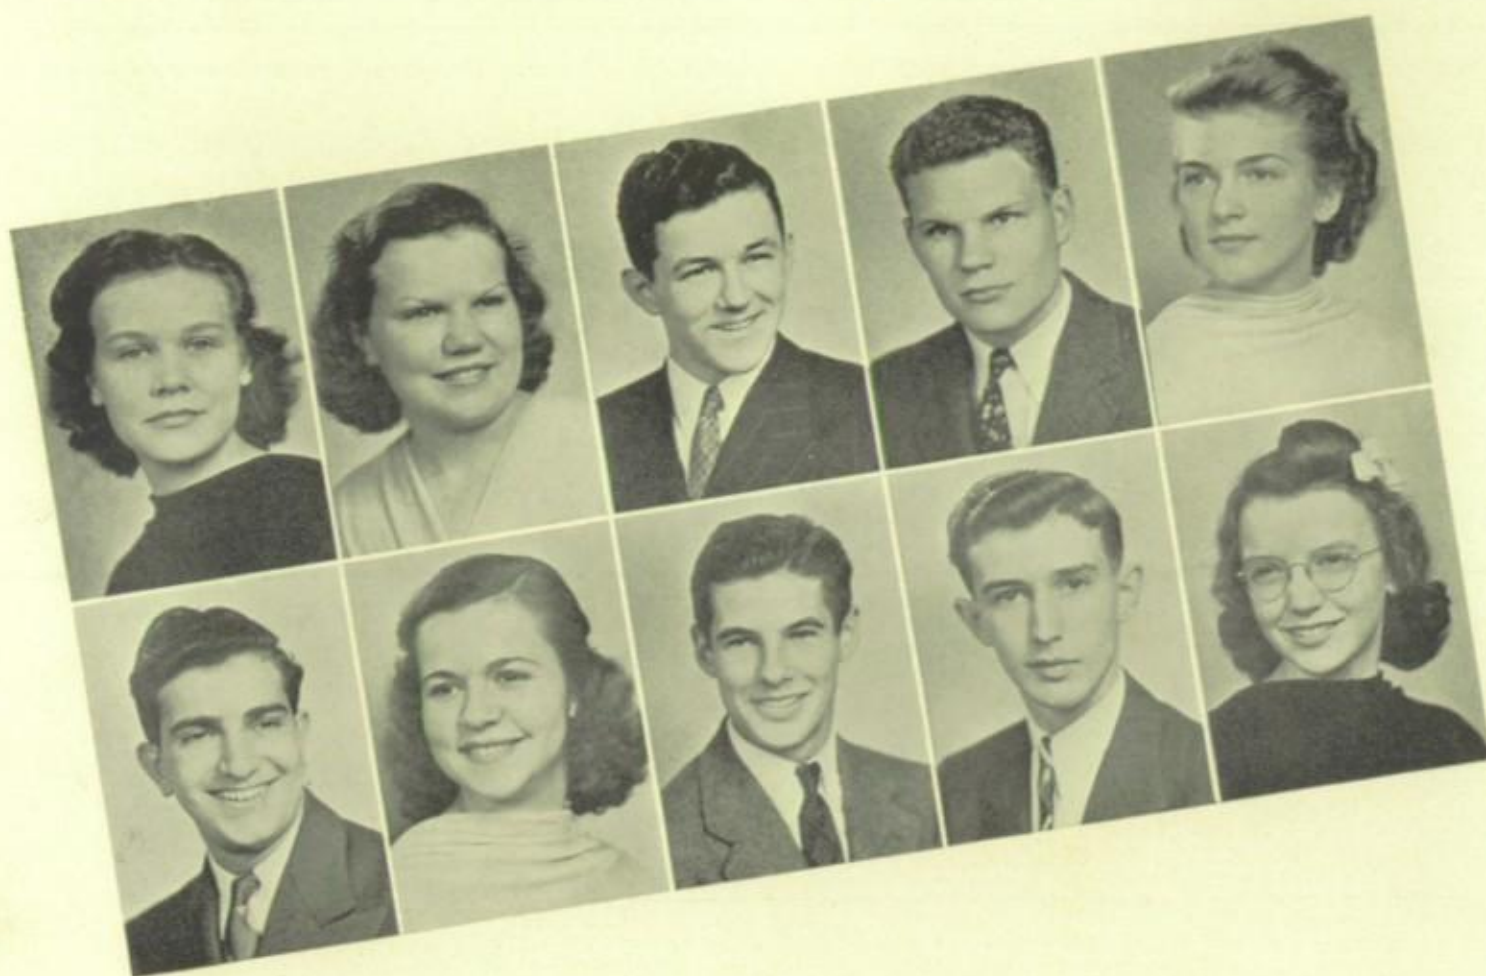

"He" calls her Suzy. We call her "Slug." We'll "Marimba" her as a jitterbug. Aims to be a stenographer.

EARL STARR

Short, deep-voiced Goon. Best mechanic around. What Earl doesn't know about motors isn't worth knowing.

MARY STARR

Provides great competition for the boys during hunting season. May enter business college.

MARION STAUFFER

Tries hard to please. Her heart is torn between two careers—nursing and commercial work. Her desire—ask Marion.

JOHN TALLARICO

Dark-haired Casanova. Even more handsome in a tux. Johnny is a smooth dancer who says, "Girls, first, last, and always."

MARY STOKES

Small. Full of fun. "Shorty" isn't fond of any boy except a certain one who hails from out of town.

DORIS TAYLOR

Ambitious and witty. A future bookkeeper. Now most frequently seen with Jack.

EARL STONE

Good-looking mid. Reads detective and airplane magazines regularly. Fast member of the tank team. Future aviator. High flier with girls now.

GEORGE TAYLOR

Good-looking, dark-haired Adonis. Provides himself as a handsome escort to many girls, never to one in particular. Fast end on the football team. Excellent dancer.

HENRY SWAB

Curly-haired hero of the gridiron. Always ready to give you his philosophy on life and women. A serious-minded chemist. Ready wit brightens every school day. A friend of all.

ROBERT THOMPSON

Tall and terrific! Becoming a real femme-thriller. Better known as "Click" because of his fine pictures. A regular fellow and a fine student.

DOROTHY SWOPE

Attractive blonde. A recipient of many humps. Would like to be a laboratory technician.

ESTHER TODD

Seen most frequently at the "Y" dances. A future French teacher—after college.

MARY JANE TRAVIS

A very small person, but what a capacity for knowledge she has! Wants to be a librarian.

VIOLET VALENTINE

Violet would much rather talk than think. Look for her as a pro on the roller-skating rink.

ANDREW VALVANES

Likable, wavy-haired, athletic, sincere, all put together. His ready wit in school and on the gridiron make everyone enjoy having him around. Not a better friend can be found.

NORMA WALTERS

Energy plus. Finds it hard to keep under cover—especially in gym class. An interesting and fun-loving classmate.

JUNE WARD

Ususally seen with Doris and Bettie. Quiet, dependable, and ambitious. Hopes to be a competent secretary or bookkeeper.

IRENE WEIDMAN

Rennie may be quiet, but she is smart. Always right there in all classes with her homework finished.

HERMINA WEISS

Earnest. Hard worker. May enter business college or some other educational institution.

JOSEPH WEITZEL

Comical, likable, exhilarating. A wonderful athlete and swell fellow. He can be serious at times. Everybody likes Joe, the jester of the Goons.

EARL WENDLER

Short, heavy-set heartbreaker. A fast-moving grocery store clerk when he isn't studying (?) hard. He's always talking about the women—his favorite pastime.

JEAN WENGER

Ever loyal, ever true, ever studious, never blue. Always doing things worth while with a kind and loving smile.

DOROTHY WILSON

Dottie wants to be a commercial artist. The main topic of her conversation seems to be Lawrence.

WILLIAM WISE

Tall, blond, and handsome. Usually quiet. Has fine mechanical ability. Dates Ruth a lot. His popularity increases daily.

ERLA WITMER

Interested in sports. A good worker. A smile for everyone. Always happy.

PAUL YESSLER

A boy bound to go far in this world. One of Mr. Martin's best students. Asking questions is Paul's hobby. A strong tenor in the glee club. Likes the women.

FREDERICK ZITTLE

"Dead-eye Dick" with a bow and arrow. Friendly, blond scientist. Women and Fred mix readily. A quiet, but sincere pal to everybody.

The Student Council is a representative organization which provides a closer relationship between the executive force and the student body. Through the Council, students may suggest desirable changes in or additions to school activities. To the best of their ability, the representatives discuss and solve student problems. The Council stresses cooperation, freedom, and participation about the school. The organization stands ready to lend a hand to the school at any time and in any way.

The objective of the National Honor Society, as stated in its constitution, is fourfold: "The purpose of this organization shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of the American secondary schools."

Our chapter has shown initiative in all activities and in the maintenance of a loyal school attitude. In addition it has been in charge of the refreshment stands at the football games and has been responsible for the conduct of the study period in the auditorium during the lunch period.

CLASS HISTORY

The day was cold and dark and dreary. It was February, 1937. A group of sophisticated sophomores were meandering toward their doom. From that day on, the aim of the upperclassmen was to prove themselves worthy co-workers of this superior class.

This was the class of Mid-1940. For a time it was a divided class, for the boys went to the old Lancaster High Building, while the "better half" entered Stevens.

That year demanded of us many adjustments, but we proved ourselves ready, willing, and able to cope with the situation. Our musically inclined members joined the glee club, the orchestra, and the band; the athletes joined the junior varsity football, basketball, tennis, and soccer teams. Some also contributed to the school publication, then in magazine form.

As juniors, upon completion of the John Piersol McCaskey High School, we began our coeducational training. This year we really began to take a prominent part in school activities, chief among which were The Mikado and the varsity football team.

With our senior year came organization, in which we were ably aided by Mr. Oller. The class officers are:

PresidentRobert Frey
Vice PresidentNina May Meisenhelder
SecretaryNancy Bevis
TreasurerWalter Reich
HistorianJoan Pyfer

Our play, in which we were assisted by the class of June, 1939, was a histrionic triumph. Also in this field was Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "Ruddigore." Some of our number were elected to the National Honor Society.

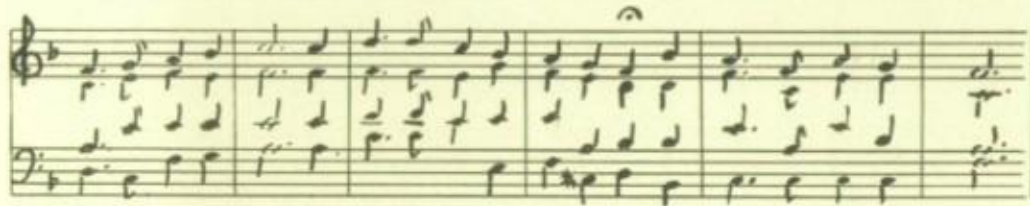

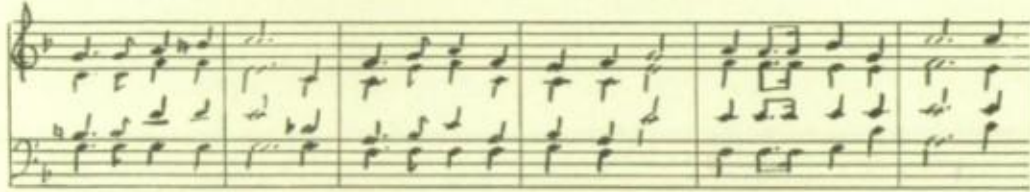

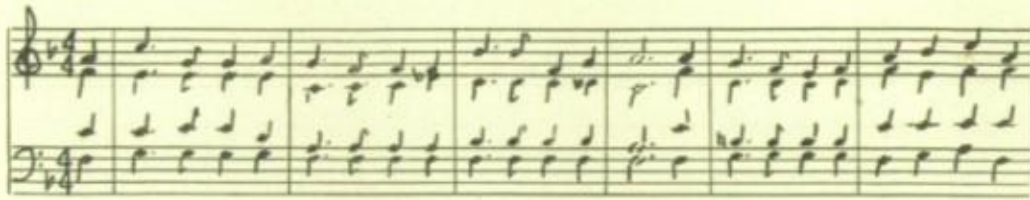

After the strain of a semester of toil, there came a round of relaxation and recreation. It was vacation time, and our class was well represented at the New York World's Fair.

Then came the final five months. The school was soon to lose us. Our football heroes led brief, but brilliant careers. The Student Council was honored to be led by several mid-seniors. After composing our orations, gems proving our rare talents, we held an informal party at Hostetter's Barn. Our senior prom climaxed our social life. It was a gala event, appropriate to such an outstanding class. The crowning glory was achieved at commencement.

This remarkable record will go down in the annals of the high school to prove that the class of Mid-1940, with its intelligence and athletic prowess, moral strength, and radiating personality is superlative.

JOAN PYFER.

CLASS SONG

We leave thee now, McCaskey High,
Thou stalwart and true friend,
And all your days of happiness
Which draw now to an end.
We cherish our experiences,
Gained here in thy domain;
From loyal praising of thy name
We never shall refrain.
Always we'll remember thee,
In all we do and say,
And think of thy refreshing haunts
Through each and every day.

Music—Theresa Eberly
Words—Betty Forrest

CLASS POEM

The sunshine of days that have passed
And shadows that mingled with rain
Through three short years at McCaskey
We sing in a farewell refrain

The teachers and friends we have met
Have given us help and good cheer.
We'll cherish their service and aid
Through many a following year.

We've worked and we've played and we've served,
In class room and study and hall,
The things we have learned and remembered
Will help us to answer our call.

And now on the threshold we stand
And what will the call for us be
As we face the world of Tomorrow?
'Tis service so loyal you'll see—

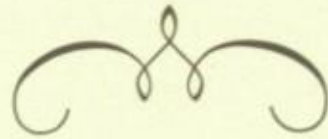

For each will be true to the best,
To our own Alma Mater so dear,
We hope she'll be proud to remember
Our names down through many a year.

It's the little things that mark the difference between a "distinctive annual" and "just another yearbook." The Campus system of yearbook counsel and production is based on the little things that count—

PERSONAL ATTENTION

UNIFORM QUALITY

TYPE

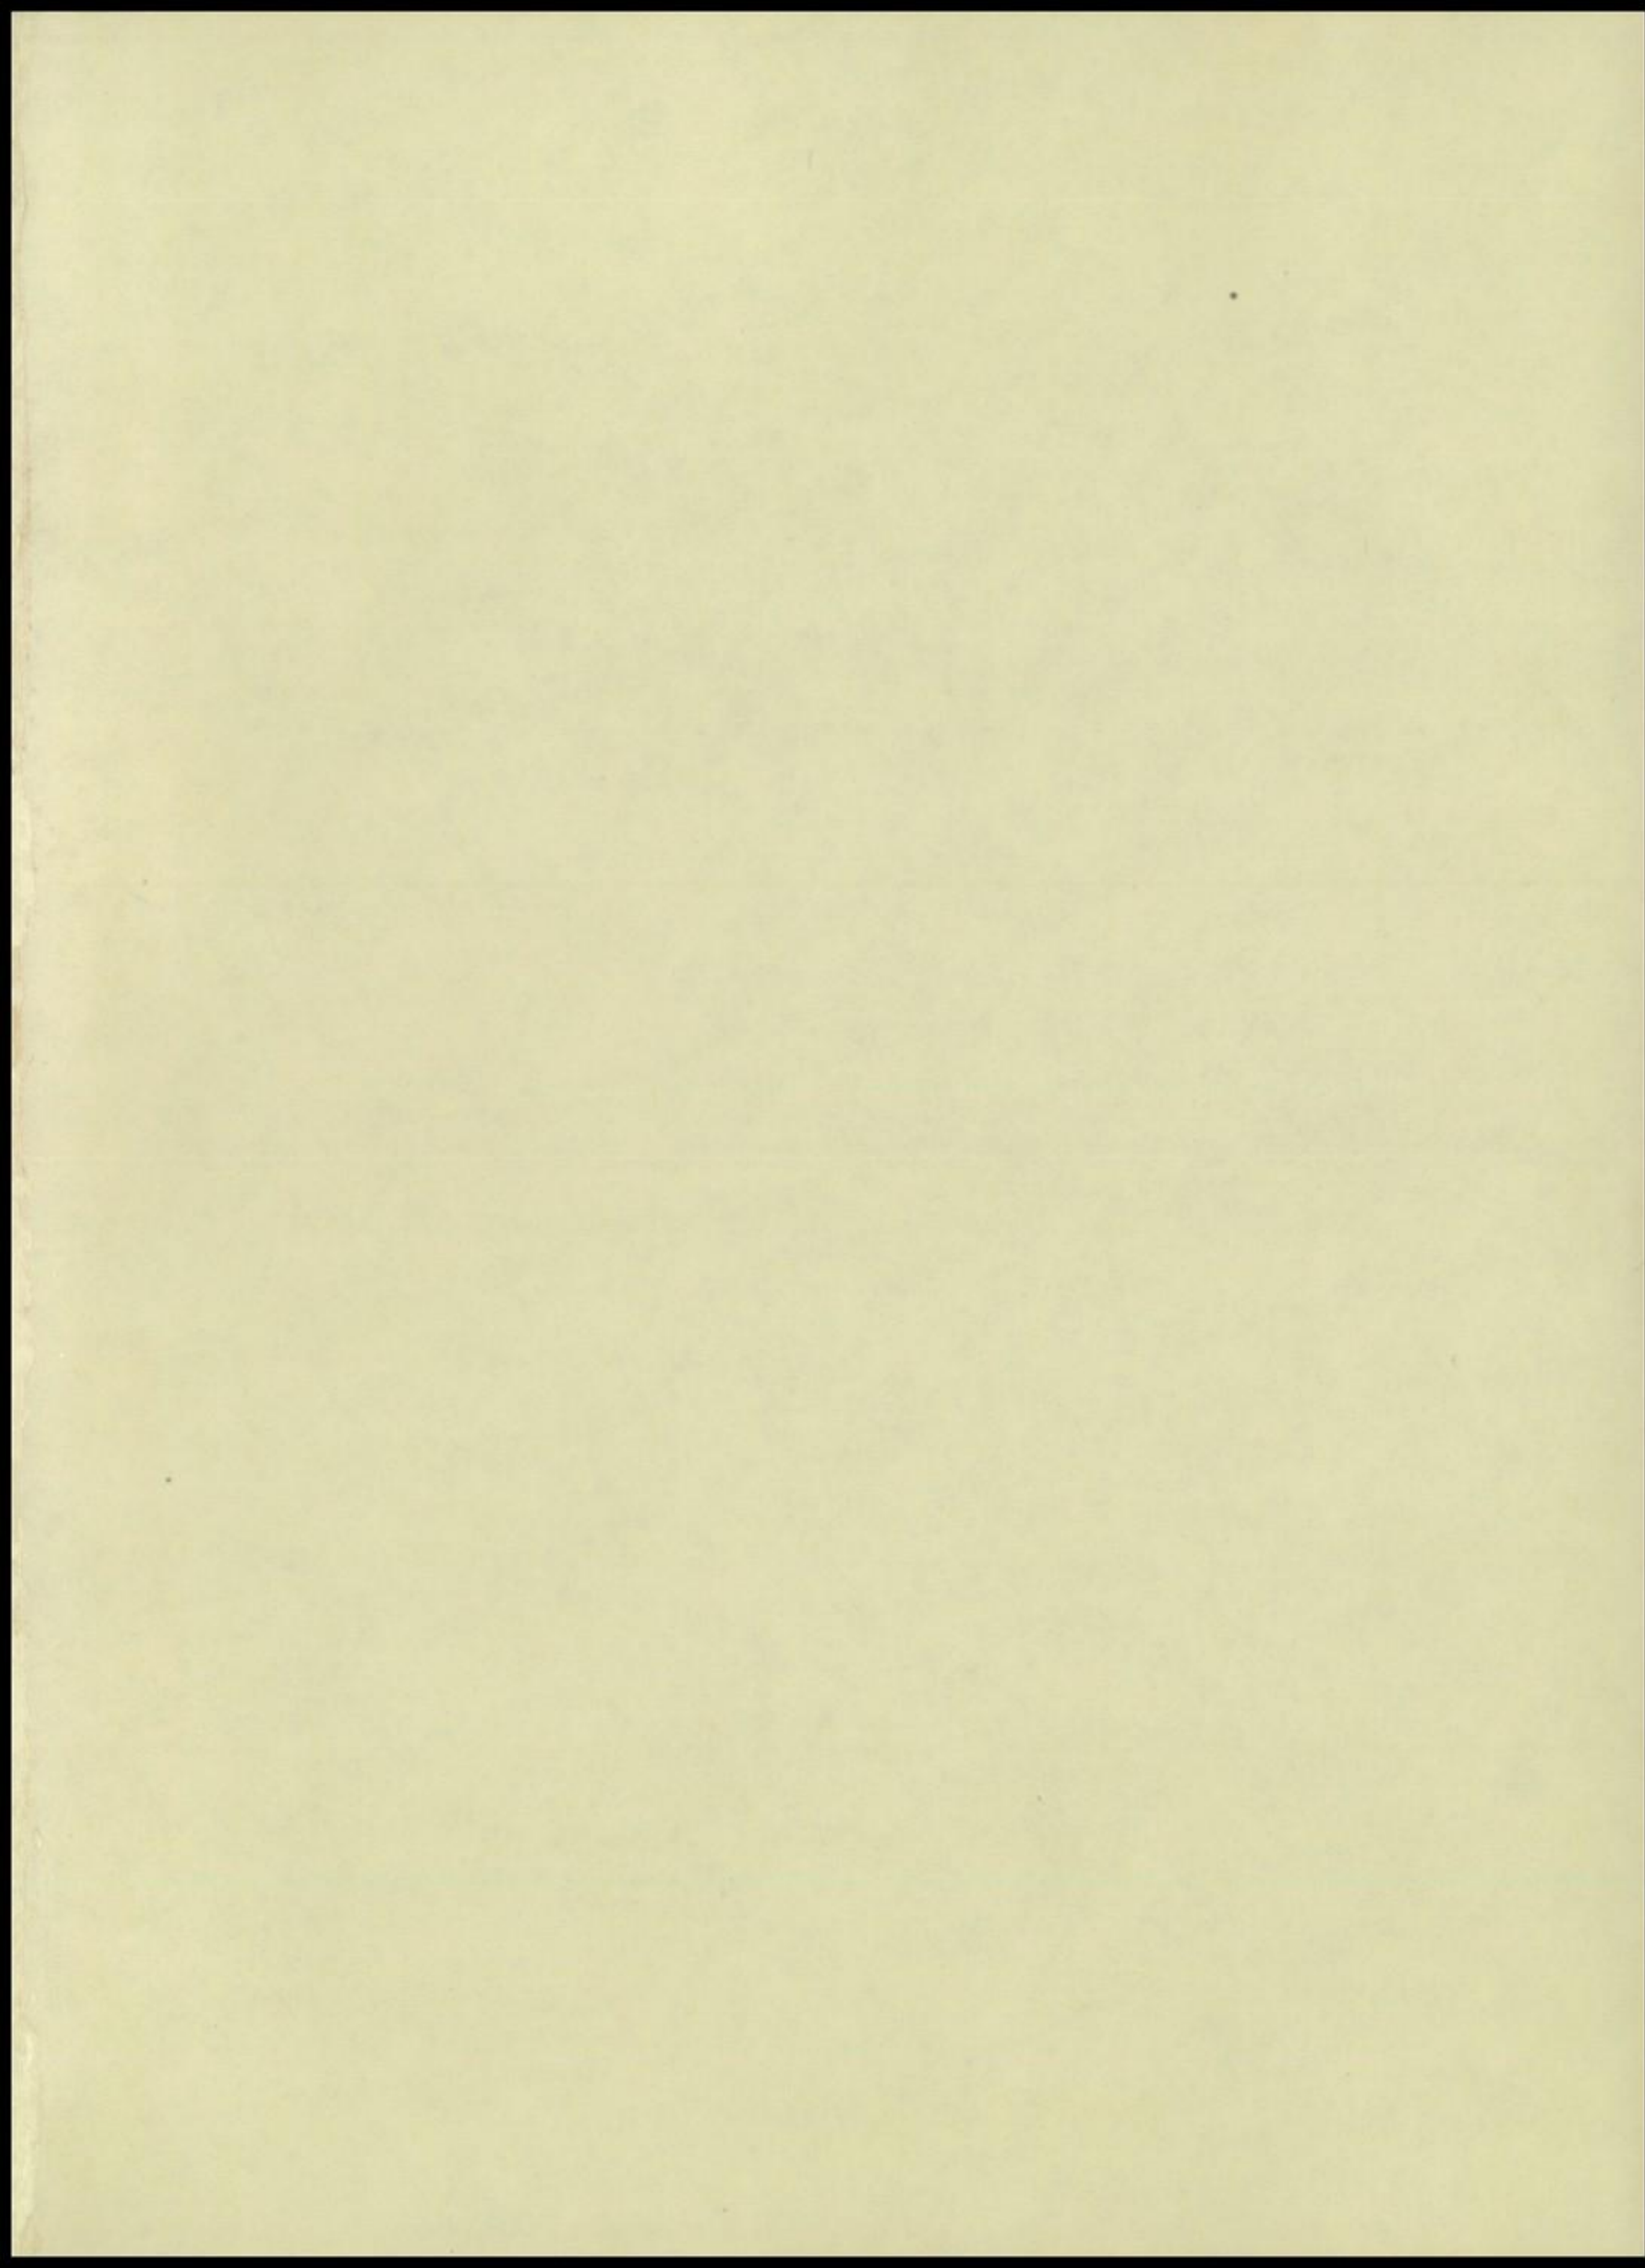

BUDGET

- Personalized attention of thoroughly trained servicemen, former editors of outstanding college annuals, who know the problems of yearbook production—and the answers!
- Uniformity of quality and materials regardless of the size of book.
- A wide range of type faces, and the advice of expert typographers regarding taste, suitability and harmony of types.
- An eye toward proper distribution of the budget. The Campus plan of handling books completely from layout to delivery allows a maximum of value at minimum cost.
